Chain Reaction

The Newcastle District Methodist Church celebrates three important anniversaries with music and worship:

- ◆ three hundred years since the birth of Charles Wesley, the Methodist leader and great hymn writer
- ◆ two hundred years since the abolition of the slave trade
- ◆ and two hundred years since the birth of Primitive Methodism

Fellside Goes To Blackpool!

The people of Blackpool didn't know what had hit them when 7000 people from all over the country descended on them ... And over 75 of them were from Fellside!

This was the 20th and final 'Easter People' Christian celebration and teaching event. People from Fellside have been going for around 14 years now, but this was the largest contingent ever. Easter People is a five day event encompassing a variety of talks, worship celebrations, seminars, workshops, and excellent entertainment. People are free to pursue whatever they wish, and relaxing and just 'being together' is a major part of it.

Easter People is a great environment to explore any questions relating to the Christian faith, and spiritual direction, and it quite often happens that in this atmosphere, new realisations of truth and faith are found.

Several Fellsiders have become committed Christians at Easter People, and many more have deepened their faith there.

Although this was the final Easter People, a new event is taking its place next year in Llandudno.

Called ECG (Equipping, Calling, Going), it will include all that was on offer at Blackpool, and looks to become a worthy successor.

Here's a snapshot of some of the Fellside clan cheering as the editor nearly got flattened by a tram taking the photo!

Roll on Llandudno!

Fellside Plays The Sage

As you probably have seen overleaf, there is a major Newcastle District Methodist event being held at The Sage, Gateshead later this month.

'Chain Reaction' involves a huge choir drawn from local churches, the South Tyneside Orchestra, excerpts from a new musical 'Cargo', and ... Fellside's very own worship band, Icthus!

Music steward, Julie Silversides commented, 'It is a huge honour for us to be asked to provide the modern music element to the evening, and I'm sure this reflects the standard of musicianship at Fellside. We are blessed with a wealth of highly proficient musical talent, and more musicians and singers are joining all the time. This is a really exciting time for us!'

Reports and pictures will be included in the next edition of Fellside News, and if you want to see Icthus in action but can't get to The Sage, just come along on any Sunday morning!

Did You Know?

... that you can access this newsletter, the church notices, and loads of information on the church web site?

And ... you can even download or stream audio of sermons and talks given on Sundays! Our web address is below.

Prayer Requests

Fellside believes in the power of prayer. If you would like us to pray for anything important to you, please either email requests to info@fellside.co.uk or phone 496 0072. There is soon to be a letter box at the church where you can post requests. We respect your privacy and confidentiality. Feel free to remain anonymous if you wish.
